

Nobody has told you this story.

Join each picture to where it belongs in the story.

first

next

then

last

Circle what told you which picture came first.

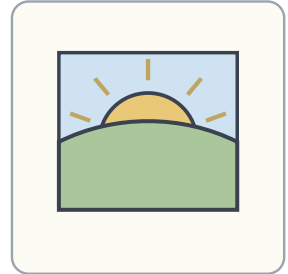

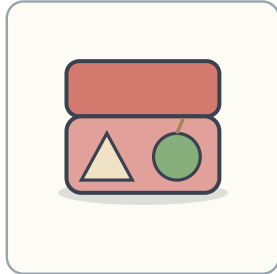

The bucket has nothing in it yet.

It is the picture on the left.

It is the one I like best.

These four things happened at school today.

Join each picture to where it belongs in the day.

first

next

then

last

Did the lunch box come before the bus or after it? Circle one.

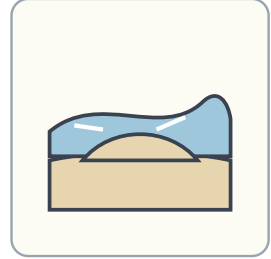

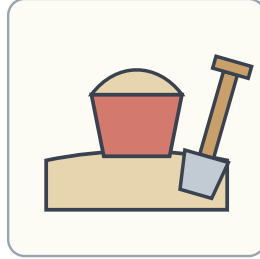

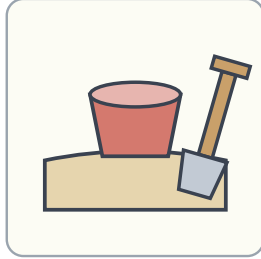

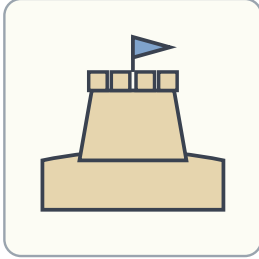

before

after

Tell a partner about today using first, next, then and last.

A partner put the best part of the story at the front.

Circle the picture that is in the wrong place.

Did the castle come before the full bucket or after it? Circle one.

before

after

Circle why it goes where it goes.

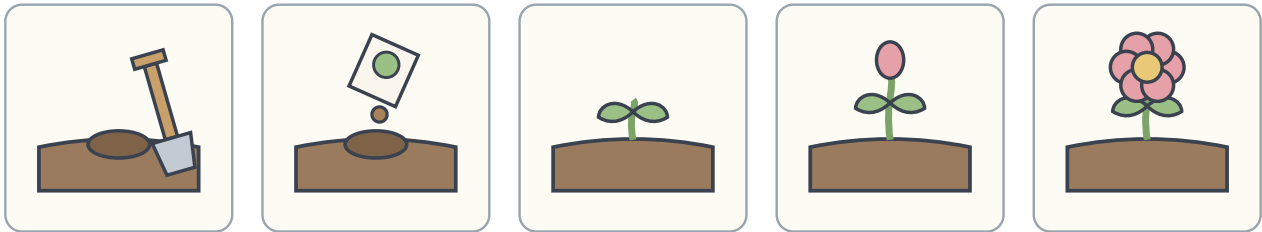

The bucket has to be filled before the castle can be tipped out of it.

The castle is the best part, so it should go first.

Say the order the story really happened in.

This story has six pictures.

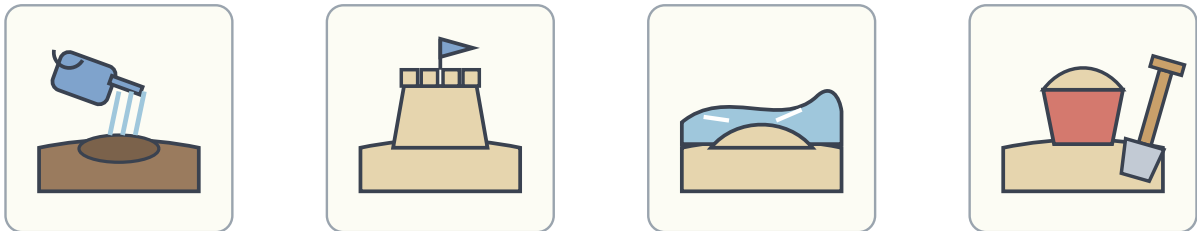

It is in the right order, but one picture is missing.

Put a tick on the picture in the row above that came straight after the shoot.

One picture is missing. It belongs between the seed and the shoot. Circle it below.

choose from these

Say the whole story from first to last, using every picture.