

Work out the damage

The shop ordered thirty boxes of juice, but the label said 13.

ORDERED 30 boxes of juice	ARRIVED 13 boxes of juice
------------------------------	------------------------------

How many boxes of juice are missing? _____

A different order: fourteen tins were asked for, but the label said 40.

ORDERED 14 tins	ARRIVED 40 tins
--------------------	--------------------

How many tins are extra? _____

The farm ordered eighteen chickens, but the label said 80.

ORDERED 18 chickens	ARRIVED 80 chickens
------------------------	------------------------

How many chickens are extra? _ _ _ _ _

The farm ordered forty ducks, but the label said 14.

ORDERED 40 ducks	ARRIVED 14 ducks
---------------------	---------------------

How many ducks are missing? _ _ _ _ _

The shop ordered seventeen cartons of eggs, but the label said 70.

ORDERED 17 cartons of eggs	ARRIVED 70 cartons of eggs
-------------------------------	-------------------------------

How many cartons of eggs are extra? _____

The farm ordered nineteen sheep, but the label said 90.

ORDERED 19 sheep	ARRIVED 90 sheep
---------------------	---------------------

How many sheep are extra? _____

How far off?

Go back to the labels you circled as wrong. Work out how far off each one really was.

"sixty" was written as 16.

Correct number: _____

OFF BY

"seventeen" was written as 70.

Correct number: _____

OFF BY

"thirty" was written as 13.

Correct number: _____

OFF BY

"eighteen" was written as 80.

Correct number: _____

OFF BY